SONOSKY, CHAMBERS POLICY ADVISOR JODI GILLETTE NAMED DIRECTOR OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES INITIATIVES

November 13, 2017

WASHINGTON, D.C.: Sonosky, Chambers, Sachse, Endreson & Perry, LLP announces the departure of Jodi Gillette, Policy Advisor – Government Relations, wishing her much success in her new position as New Company’s Director of Indigenous Peoples Initiatives. Mrs. Gillette joined Sonosky, Chambers in May 2015 as a Policy Advisor for Government Relations, bringing with her years of experience gained while serving various roles throughout the Obama Administration, her most recent being Special Assistant to the President for Native American Affairs.

“It has been an honor and pleasure to serve tribal interests as a Policy Advisor at Sonosky,” says Mrs. Gillette concerning her departure from the Firm, “and I am looking forward to this new opportunity to cultivate partnerships for the benefit of Indian country through Indigenous Peoples Initiatives.”

During her short time at the Firm, Jodi has accomplished much to advance tribal interests. “Jodi’s advocacy for tribal interests has been integral to the accomplishments Sonosky has achieved on behalf of our clients over the past two years, and we are thrilled to support her in her new capacity as Director of Indigenous Peoples Initiatives,” says Mary Pavel, Partner at Sonosky, Chambers.

Sonosky Chambers is a law firm devoted to representing Tribal interests across the United States. The firm is based in Washington, DC, with additional offices in Alaska (Anchorage and Juneau), San Diego and Albuquerque. Founded in 1976, the firm has a long and successful history representing Tribes and tribal organizations in litigation, on governmental relations, and in economic development matters, and it has an active appellate and Supreme Court practice. The firm’s work involves the broad range of issues affecting Tribes, including tribal sovereignty, self-governance, Treaty rights, health care, labor law, environmental law, child welfare matters, land acquisition, gaming, transportation and infrastructure development, and water rights.
